

DANIELS TELLS SENATORS SIMS LACKED VISION

Testifying Before Committee, He Says Rear Admiral Was Obsessed by British.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Secretary Daniels, before the Senate investigating committee, today made a reply to criticisms of Rear Admiral Sims, letting go a broadside charge that Sims lacked vision, belittled the American Navy in contrast to the British, coveted British decorations and aspired to become an honorary member of the British Admiralty.

Sims, Secretary Daniels told the committee, did not measure up to expectations in various ways, of which he mentioned six, as follows:

"He lacked vision to see that a great and new project to bar the submarines from their hunting grounds should be promptly adopted and carried out.

"He seemed to accept the views of the British Admiralty as superior to anything that would come from America and urged those views even when the Navy Department proposed plans that proved more effective.

"In public speeches and other ways he gave a maximum of credit to British efforts and minimized what his country was doing.

"He coveted British decorations and seemed to place a higher value on honors given abroad than on those that could be conferred by the American Government.

"He aspired to become a member of the British Admiralty and wrote complainingly when the American Government declined to permit him to accept such a tender by the King of England.

"He placed protection of merchant shipping as the main operation of our forces abroad. Failing to appreciate that the protection of transports carrying troops to France was the paramount naval duty until I felt impelled to cable him peremptorily that such was our main mission."

SHE ACCUSES 'SUIT FITTER.'

Says Man Who Called to Measure Her Skirt a Lavalliere.

Visiting women to measure them for suits of clothes which he said their husbands intended giving them as surprise gifts, got Edward Koch of No. 121 Allen Street, in trouble. He got into further trouble today when he forfeited his bail bond of $5,000 by failing to appear in the New Jersey Avenue Court, Brooklyn, on a charge of having stolen a diamond lavalliere from Mrs. Dora Friedman of No. 221 Stone Avenue, Brooklyn, on April 27, when it is alleged, he told her the surprise gift story, and while Mrs. Friedman was in another room preparing for the necessary measurements, took the pendant and disappeared.

The police say that he was sent to Sing Sing in 1919 for the same kind of offense. A bench warrant was issued for his arrest.

Ask Veto of Chiropractic Bill.
ALBANY, May 10.—The Board of Managers of the State Charities Aid Association has asked Governor Smith to veto the bill to recognize the practice of chiropractic. The bill would license those who claim to locate and adjust by hand misplaced vertebrae of the human spine to correct nerve pressure.

The word Ostermoor

It isn't in the dictionary—but it might well be. Everybody knows the word. For as long as many people can remember it has meant a better-made mattress that gives lasting service and the maximum of sleep comfort.

If you've never slept on an Ostermoor, you can't realize what a difference there can be in degrees of mattress comfort.

If you need a new mattress—if your present mattress is lumpy and saggy—if you feel you deserve the best sleep you can get, then try an Ostermoor.

Ostermoor comfort is BUILT in—not stuffed in. Pure Ostermoor sheets, hand-made in a tailor-made tick.

See the Ostermoor quality for yourself at our big show-rooms. Or send a postal for samples of our ticking and free catalog, "The Test of Time."
